THIS WEEK'S SPEAKERS: Erin Stephenson and Brooke Coleman Community Foundation

Erin K. Stephenson joined the staff in 2005 and was named Vice President Development in 2011, working closely with professional advisors as well as individuals, families and businesses on a variety of charitable giving options. She also serves as executive director of the Charitable Real Estate Foundation, which facilitates the use of real estate assets for philanthropy.

A Birmingham native, she graduated from Birmingham Southern College and worked for several community organizations in Birmingham and Statesboro, Ga. She serves on the board of directors of the Alabama Planned Giving Council, the junior board of YWCA Central Alabama, and the Young Professional Advisory Board for the Birmingham Business Alliance. She is a member of the Rotaract Club of Birmingham and was a member of the 2009 class of the Alabama Leadership Initiative and the 2012 class of Leadership UAB.

As a member of the Development team, Brooke Coleman works with professional advisors, individuals, and families to understand their philanthropic values and to develop charitable strategies that expand donors' giving capacity and impact. A Birmingham native, she graduated from Smith College and received an MBA with a focus in nonprofit management from Yale University School of Management.

Since returning to Birmingham in 2009, Brooke has served as a community volunteer in the areas of strategic planning, governance, and development for a variety of area nonprofit organizations. She is a member of the 2015 class of Leadership Birmingham and serves on the boards of Creative Montessori School and Altamont School.

THE ROTARY WAY

The Object of Rotary

THE OBJECT of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND High ethical standards in business and professions, the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Rotarian Code of Conduct

The following code of conduct has been adopted for the use of Rotarians: AS A ROTARIAN, I will:

- 1) Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life.
- 2) Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect.
- 3) Use my professional skills through Rotary to: mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world.
- 4) Avoid behavior that reflects adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians.

The Four-Way Test

OF THE THINGS we think, say or do:

- 1) Is it the TRUTH?
- 2) Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- 3) Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- 4) Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
