THIS WEEK'S SPEAKER: Elizabeth Bryant, e3Partners

Elizabeth Bryant graduated from Georgia College & State University with a degree in Business Management and a minor in dance. After college, she lived in Ndola, Zambia, for 2 1/2 months where she worked with a community resource center and taught business classes to agriculture students. She is now Executive Assistant at Surgical Dermatology Group and also serves with e3 Partners as a Church Planting Coordinator. Her role with e3 gives her the opportunity to train and lead medical and church planting mission teams to the Amazon Region of Peru and the Middle East. She is an active member of Christ Fellowship Church and enjoys traveling, spending time with friends, and a good cup of coffee.

VOCATIONAL SERVICE

Vocational Service is one of Rotary's Avenues of Service. Vocational Service calls every Rotarian to:

- Aspire to high ethical standards in their occupation;
- Recognize the worthiness of all useful occupations, and;
- Contribute their vocational talents to the problems and needs of society.

Rotarians, clubs, and districts should implement the following strategies in their support of Vocational Service:

- Strengthen the emphasis on vocation and classification in new member recruitment and induction.
- Identify means of emphasizing vocation in club activities.
- Create a stronger emphasis on business networking with integrity in Rotary at the club and district level.
- Focus more attention on business networking with integrity as a means of attracting and mentoring the new generation.
- Emphasize the connection between the Four Way Test and the Rotary Code of Conduct (formerly called: Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions) and their importance to the values of Rotary.

When professionals join a Rotary club, they do so as a representative of their classification – their particular

ROTARY CODE OF CONDUCT

As a Rotarian, I will

1. Exemplify the core value of integrity in all behaviors and activities
2. Use my vocational experience and talents to serve in Rotary
3. Conduct all of my personal, business, and professional affairs ethically, encouraging and fostering high ethical standards as an example to others
4. Be fair in all dealings with others and treat them with the respect due to them as fellow human beings
5. Promote recognition and respect for all occupations which are useful to society
6. Offer my vocational talents: to provide opportunities for young people, to work for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community
7. Honor the trust that Rotary and fellow Rotarians provide and not do anything that will bring disfavor or reflect adversely on Rotary or fellow Rotarians

THE ROTARY WAY

The Object of Rotary

THE OBJECT of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND High ethical standards in business and professions, the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

business or profession. Rotarians have the dual responsibility of representing their vocation within the club and exemplifying the ideals of Rotary within the workplace. One of the central goals of Vocational Service is to promote and advance Rotary's high ethical standards. Two useful tools Rotarians have to assess these standards are The Four-Way Test and The Rotary Code of Conduct.

BE A ROTARY AMBASSADOR

Think about the last time you followed a friend's word-of-mouth referral for a new restaurant or trade professional. You probably acted on the referral because it came from someone you trust. In the New Year, resolve to use the influence you have with friends and colleagues to be an ambassador for Rotary and share the news about the good your club does in your community.
